

Nomination form

Please read the accompanying guidance notes before completing this form

Please clearly print or type the following details about the group you are nominating. You must complete all sections of this form or we will be unable to consider your nomination.

1. Group you are nominating

I nominate the following volunteer group for a Queen's Award. It is important that the name is accurate and spelt correctly, as this will appear on the Award certificate if your nomination succeeds.

2. What is the work of the group? What makes it excellent?

Please answer this question in no more than 50 words.

3. Contact details for the group

6. Eligibility

Please see the guidance notes for more about eligibility.

How long has the group been operating?

Is the group a branch of, or affiliated to, a larger or national organisation? If yes, please give the name of the organisation:

How many people are actively involved in the group's work?

To be eligible for an Award, more than half the group members must be volunteers.

Volunteers including unpaid trustees/committee members

Paid staff
including full time and part time

Please explain where the group's beneficiaries (i.e. the people it helps) live

Do at least half the volunteers have the right of residence in the UK?

I (the nominator) confirm that I have read and understood the eligibility criteria and that I believe this group meets them.

7. Work of the group

In this section you should give brief information about the group, its main area of work and its volunteers and beneficiaries. Please see the guidance notes for more information about which groups are eligible for an Award and answer each question in no more than 50 words.

Please tell us about the group's volunteers.

For example, age, gender, how long involved with the group, the type of work they do for the group

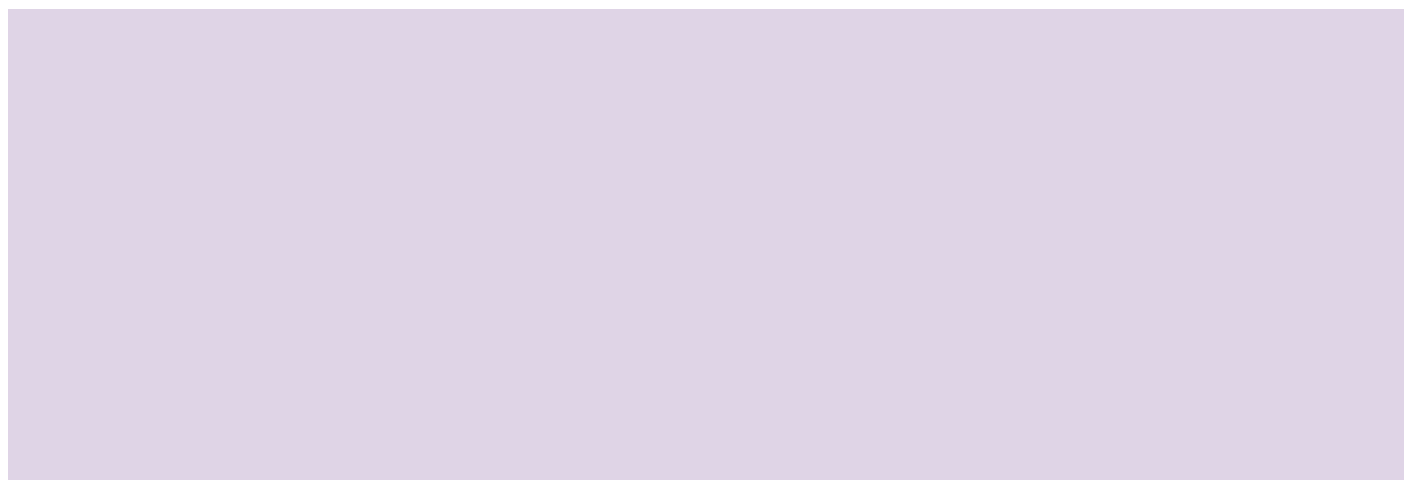

Who benefits from the group's work? And how many people have benefited in the last 12 months?

You may give an estimated number.

Has the group's contribution been recognised elsewhere?

For example, in the media, by local government, by other awards.

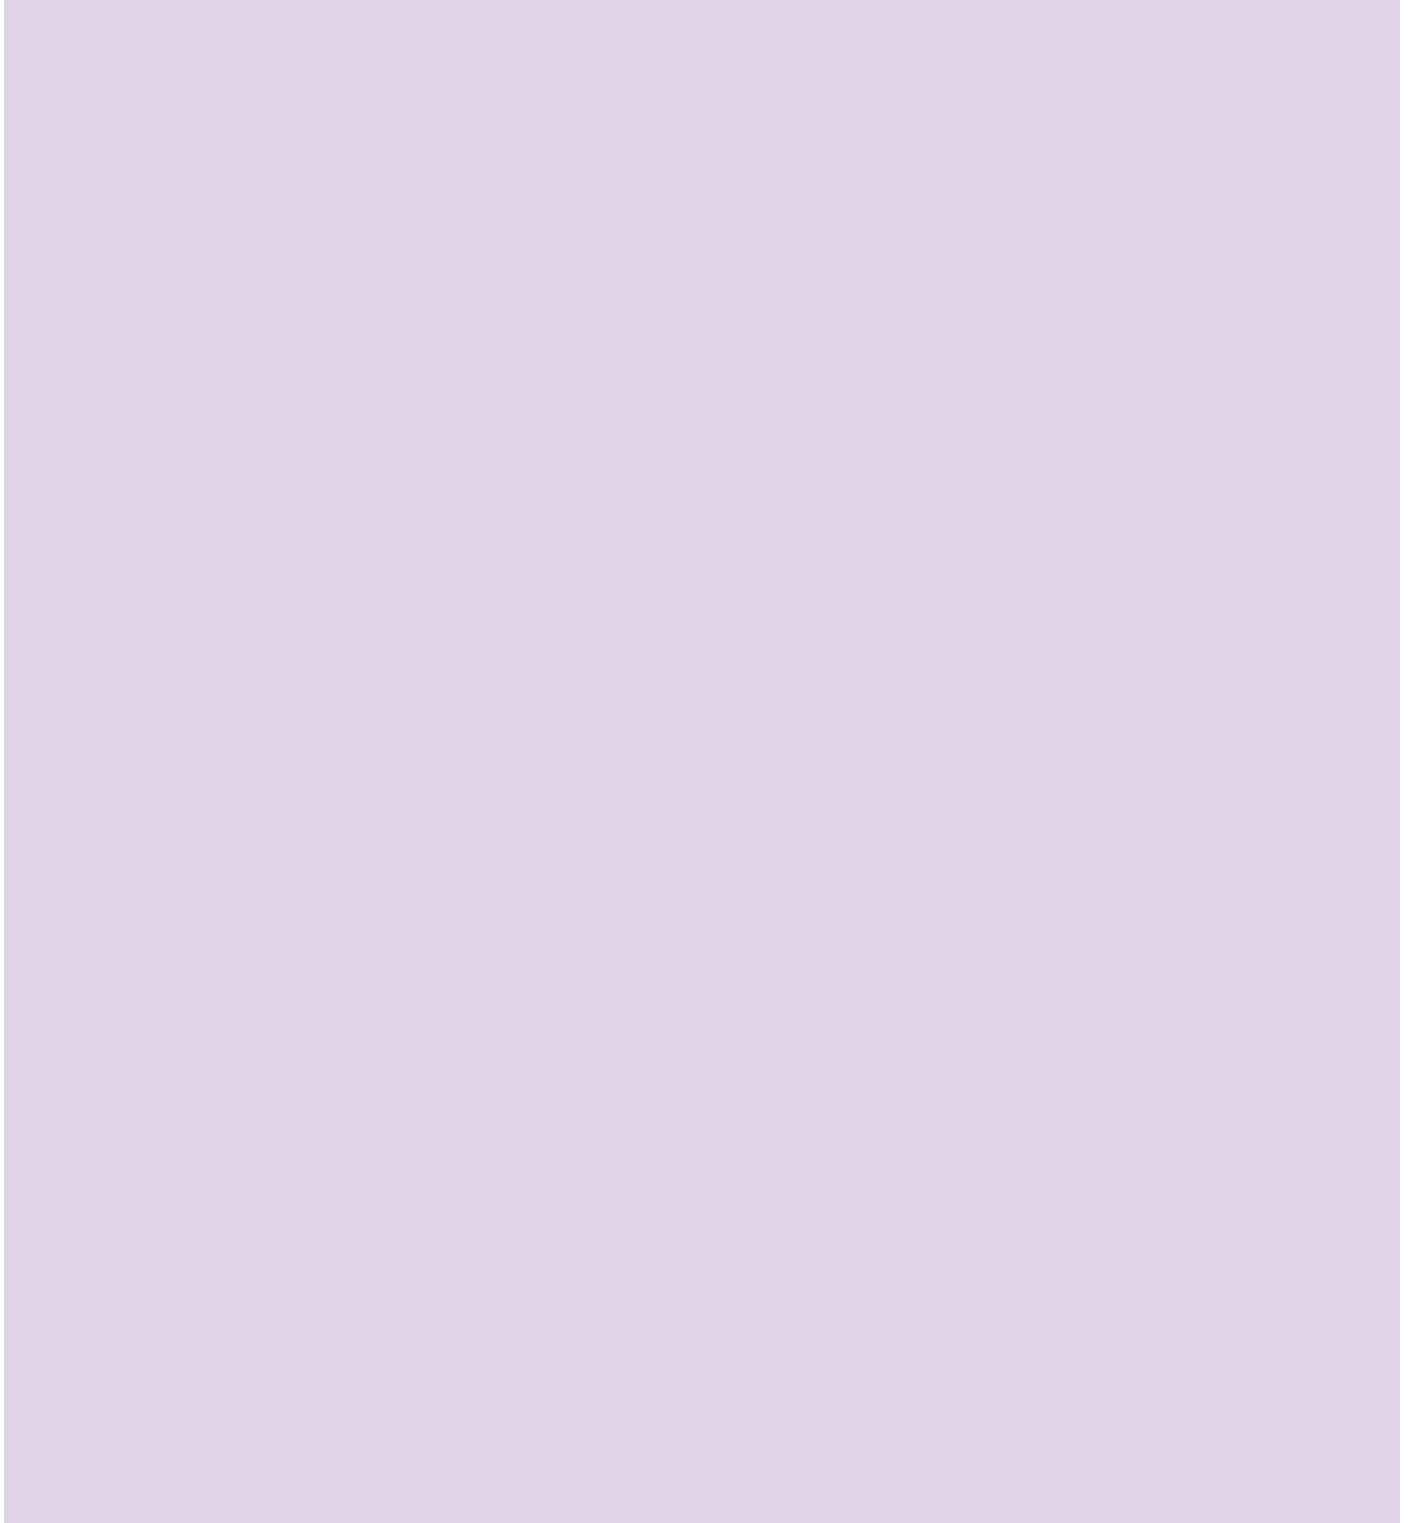

8. Your recommendation

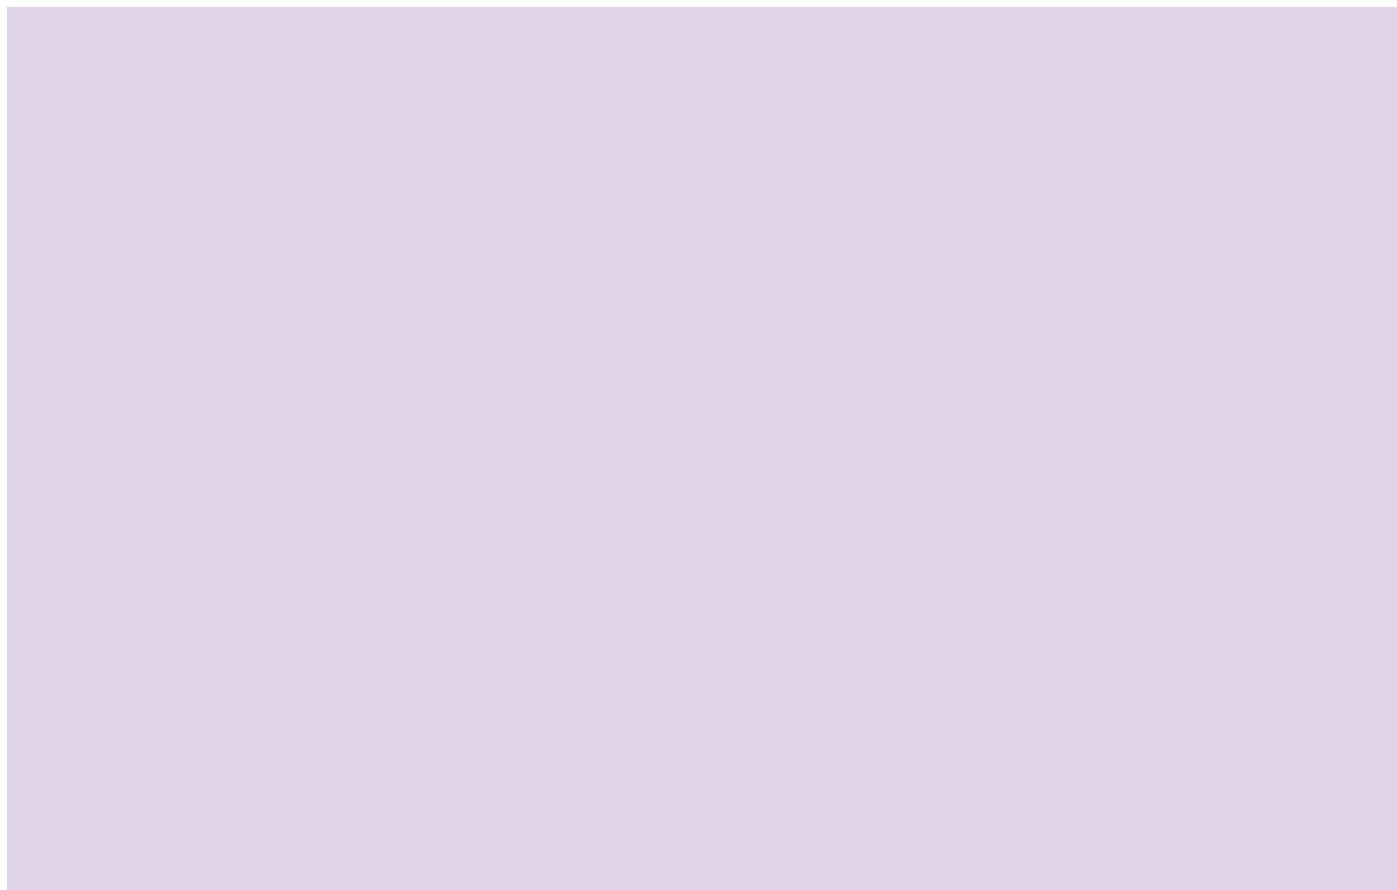

In this section, please explain how your nominated group has made a significant contribution in its area of activity. We are looking for groups that have given excellent service to their beneficiaries and communities; have delivered their service in innovative ways; and have shown other examples of selfless voluntary service that distinguish their work.

Please answer each question in no more than 200 words, explaining what achievements make the nominated group stand out from others.

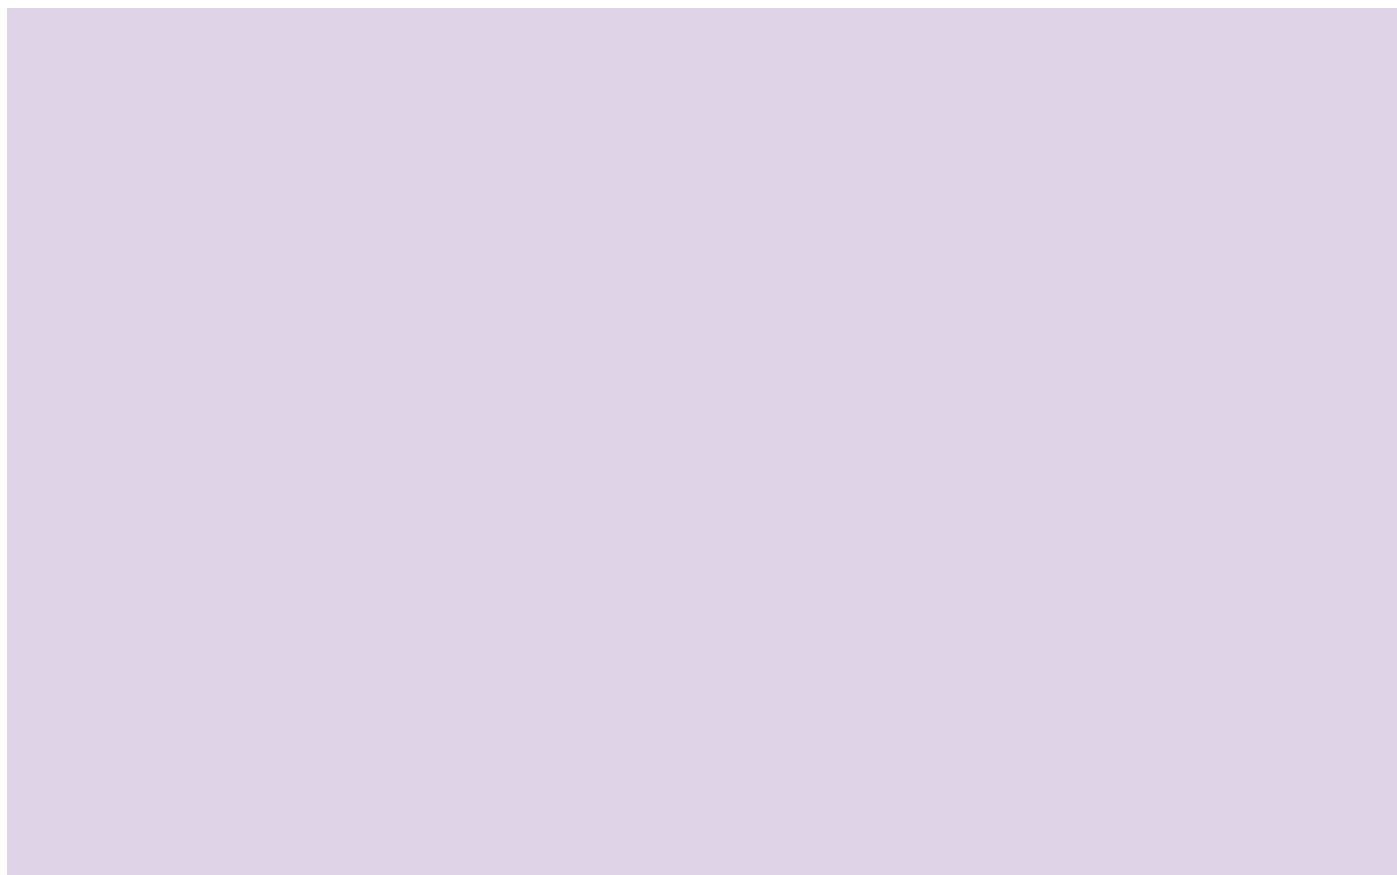

What social/economic/environmental need is this group meeting for individuals, groups or the whole community? How is it doing this?

How has the group generated a high level of good will and respect among those it serves and the whole community? Please give examples.

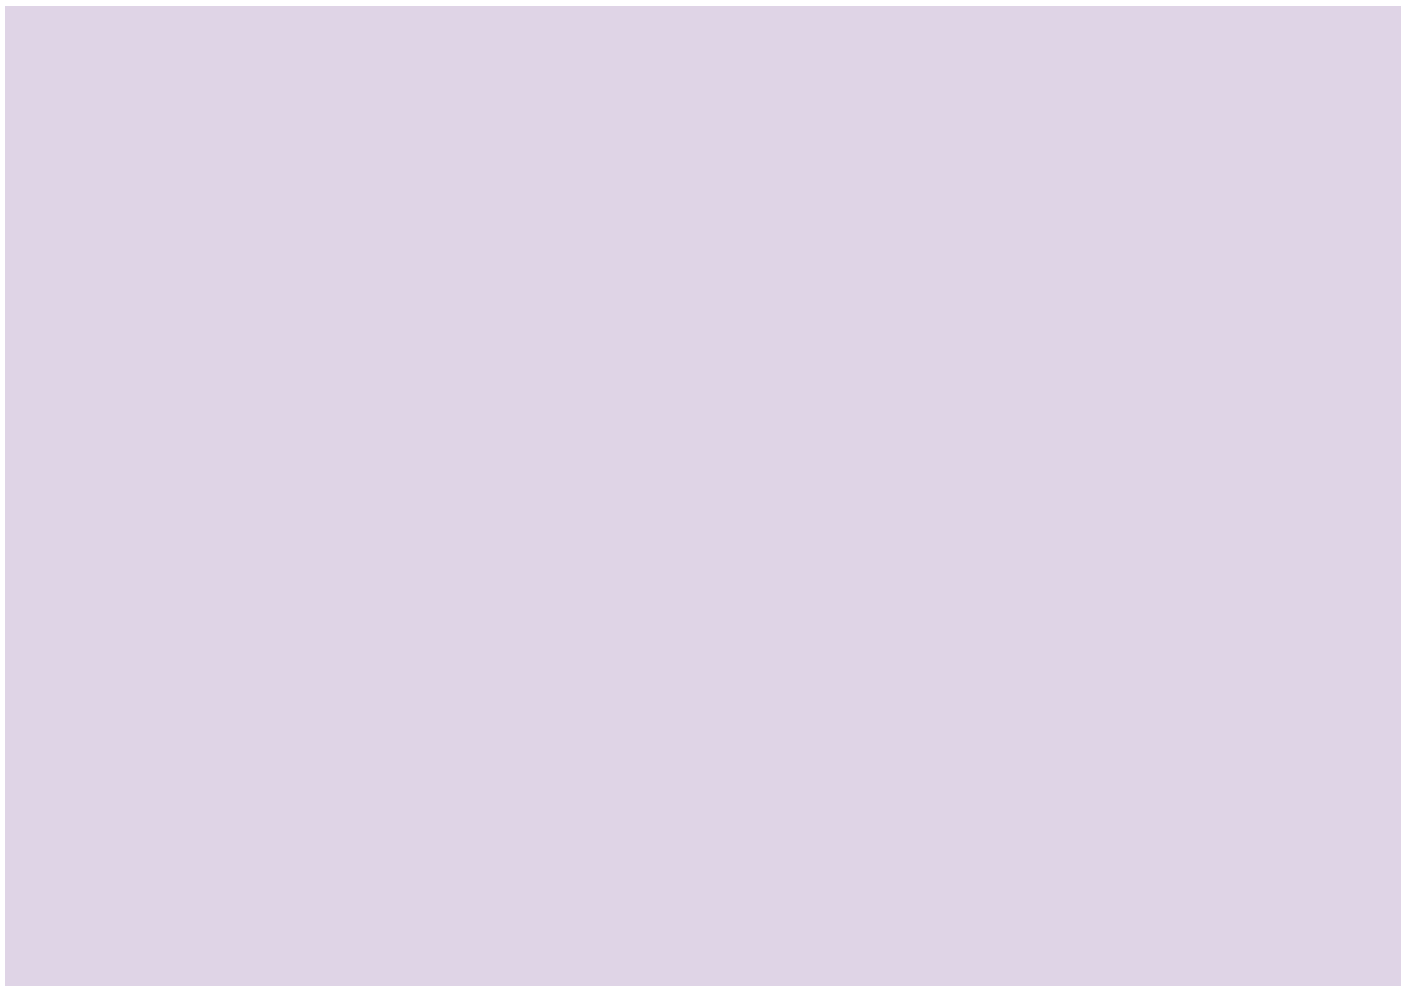

If there have been significant obstacles to the group's programme, please list them here and say how the group has overcome them.

How has the group achieved, or how is it moving towards achieving, some or all of the examples of high standards of excellence in volunteering?

Please answer all the following:

- Are there opportunities for volunteers to develop their skills and receive appropriate training or learning?
- Do volunteers receive support and guidance?
- Can volunteers give feedback on what they are doing and how they would like to develop their roles?
- Are there ways for the group to recognise volunteers' contributions?
- Are health-and-safety procedures in place?
- Are volunteers reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses?
- Does the group satisfy requirements to safeguard children and vulnerable adults, if appropriate? These requirements may include Criminal Records Bureau checks.
- If needed, does the group have public liability insurance?

9. Letters of support

Please obtain two letters that endorse the nominated group's contribution from people who are familiar with its work. One of the supporters may be a volunteer in the group. Letters of support must be attached to this form. Please list below the names of the supporters and their relationship (if any) to the group.
